

THE PURPLE AND GOLD
1929

CHARLES JAMES RHOADES
NEW COMMISSIONER OF INDIAN AFFAIRS

J. HENRY SCATTERGOOD
New Asst. Commissioner Of Indian Affairs

The Purple and Gold

1929

Year Book

Of

Sherman Institute Indian Vocational School
Riverside, California

This addition of the Purple and Gold
is the tenth annual publication of the Sherman Institute, of Riverside, California, set up and printed in the school's print shop under the direction of
K. A. Marmon
Instructor.

FOREWORD

In this book such things have been embodied that may serve as an index to the life, the work, the study, and the play of this institution during this school year.

To the present students of Sherman Institute may this book long be a source of pleasure.

James Schoolcraft Sherman
(Vice-president 1909-1912)

for whom Sherman Institute was named.

CONTENTS

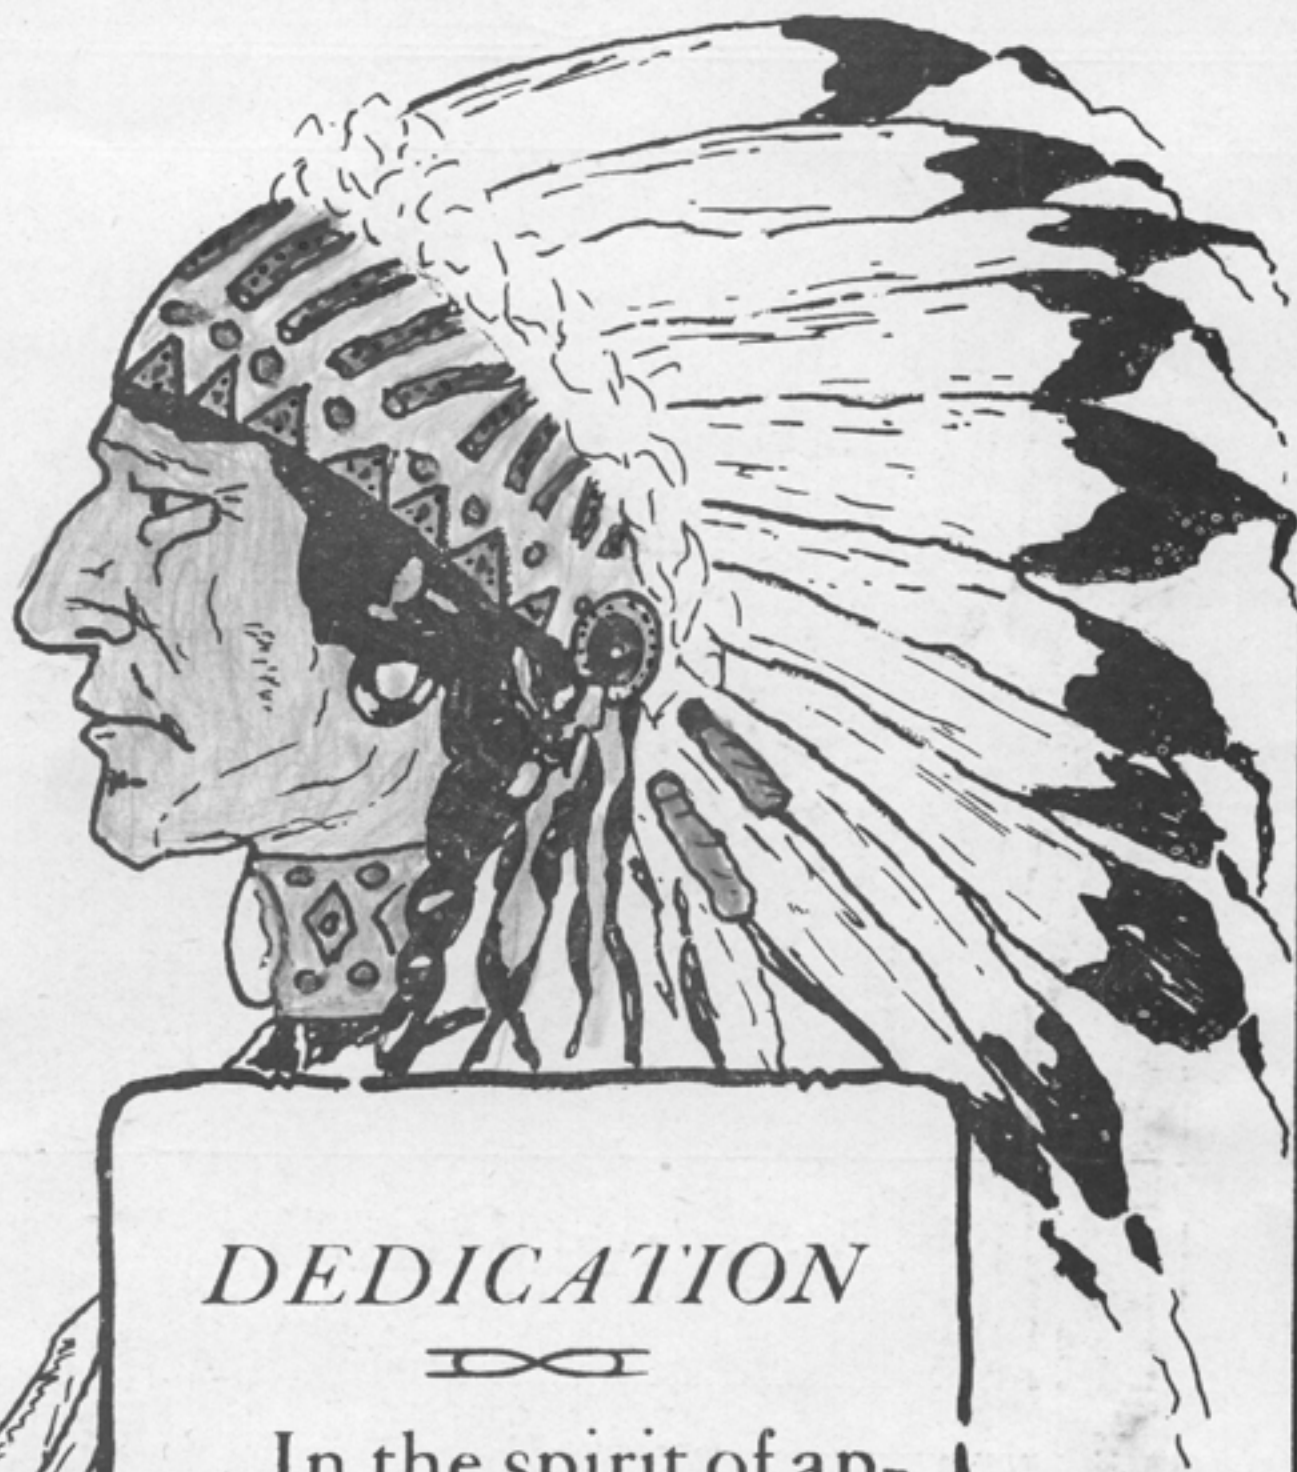

FOREWORD
DEDICATION
STAFF
FACULTY CLASSES
ACTIVITIES
ATHLETICS INDUSTRIAL GRADUATES

Superintendent Frank M. Conser

DEDICATION

In the spirit of appreciation to Supt. F. M. Conser, this book is sincerely and respectfully dedicated.

Purple and Gold Staff

| | |
|-------------------------|-----------------------------|
| KENNETH A. MARMON | Business Manager |
| PETER MASTEN | Editor-in-chief |
| JOSEPH LEEDS | Religious Editor |
| THOMAS WOODALL | Assistant Religious Editor |
| RALPH E. JOHNSON | Art Editor |
| ELI SELESTEWA | Assistant Art Editor |
| PETER HOMER | Athletic Editor |
| ROBERT E. MARMON | Industrial Editor |
| HAZEL HUMPHREYS | Assistant Industrial Editor |
| LILA NIXON | Joke Editor |

